Raising funds for medical research at the Repat

News Release

Monday, 18th December 2006

Retired Rear Admiral Kevin Scarce AO CSC leads a top line-up of Directors at Foundation Daw Park

Retired Rear Admiral Kevin Scarce AO CSC has been re-elected as Chairman of Foundation Daw Park Inc and Mr Peter Bridge as Deputy Chair following the Foundation's Annual General Meeting held in November.

Appointed as an Officer in the Order of Australia in 2004 for service to the Australian Defence Force, Admiral Scarce spent more than 35 years in the Australian Navy and in latter years his career was concentrated in logistic and acquisition disciplines.

Admiral Scarce is one of South Australia's most prominent naval figures and one of South Australia's key business entities consulting to government and business in relation to the growing Defence Industry in this state.

Through Foundation Daw park, medical research at the Repatriation General Hospital can continue to explore a vast range of illnesses which affect veterans and older people generally.

Research projects to date have included:

- › Prostate cancer
- › Colon cancer
- › Alzheimer's disease
- › Heart disease
- › Respiratory disease
- › Urological problems
- › Rheumatoid arthritis

Newly elected members to the Board are:

Mr Peter Buberis, Partner, DLA Phillips Fox

Mr David Bubner, General Manager, SRA Information Pty Ltd

Mr John Rawson, Partner, Deloitte

Mr Walter Spehr, Director Corporate Services; Repatriation General Hospital

Ms Donny Walford, CEO, DW Bottom Line Pty Ltd.

They join the Hon Martin Hamilton-Smith MP, Member for Waite; MHM Principal Consultant, Mr Paul Merrow and retired financial adviser, Mr Noel Milner

Admiral Scarce said that "in addition to its governance role, the specialist and expert skills available on this Board will be incredibly valuable as the Foundation implements its strategies for transformation and growth, building on the wonderful support of our committed donors and members by developing partnerships with Industry and business."

Foundation Daw Park is based at the Repatriation General Hospital, Daw Park. Donations can be made by contacting the Administration Office on 8275 1039.
